DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-5 and 7-9 are presented for consideration on the merits.

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed September 28, 2006, has been received and entered. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed September 28, 2006 fails to comply with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97, 1.98 and MPEP § 609 because no fee or certification has been submitted. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered as to the merits. Applicant is advised that the date of any re-submission of any item of information contained in this information disclosure statement or the submission of any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the statement, including all certification requirements for statements under 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1651

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 7-9 recites the limitation "the composition" in line 1 of each claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5 and 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Portman (US 6207638), cited on enclosed PTO-892 Form.

Claims are drawn to a composition and method(s) for treating conditions associated with diabetes comprising administering whey proteins.

Portman discloses administering a composition and method therefore, for treating conditions associated with diabetes comprising administering whey proteins in a range of 0.03 to 1.00, see columns 7-8, lines 1-10. Also see abstract.

The claims are identical to the teachings of Portman are, therefore, considered to be anticipated by Portman.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed September 28, 2006, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The argument that the newly added range of 0.1 to 0.8 g removes the reference is noted, however, the reference clearly teaches this amount. Thus, the argument is not deemed persuasive and the rejection is sustained. Further, the treatment of type 2 diabetes is clearly disclosed and further treatment of an individual with the same amount is inherent because the same ingredients is being given in the exact amount. Also the argument that the percentage amount of 21 to 40% is not disclosed is noted but it is disclosed at column 7, see line 26, wherein 22.72 % is disclosed which is well within the claimed range. Given that the reference teaches the claimed features the rejection is sustained.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140

Art Unit: 1651

F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-5 and 7-9 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of copending Application No. 10/562,460 in view of Portman.

The instant claims are discussed above.

The copending claims are drawn to a composition for treating conditions associated with diabetes wherein the composition comprises acetogenic fibers.

Portman teaches whey protein to be administered.

The claims differ from the copending claims in that acetogenic fibers are administered by the copending claims and whey protein by the instant claims.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the claimed invention was filed to replace the acetogenic fibers of the copending claims with the whey protein disclosed by Portman in order to provide for the claimed composition. The claims are prima facie obvious because one of skill would have been motivated to use whey protein as disclosed by Portman because is shown to provide successful results. One of skill would have been motivated to select whey because soy and whey are disclosed by Portman and soy is acetogenic fibers and hence one of skill would have expected whey to work. The claims are obvious over the cited prior art.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments regarding their consideration of this matter filed September 28, 2006, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

All claims fail to be patentably distinguishable over the state of the art discussed above. Therefore, the claims are properly rejected.

No claims are allowed.
